Taking a minimalistic approach was the key to design this large home in the lush Juhu suburb of Mumbai. Designed as a getaway home for a Gujarat-based family, it is permanently inhabited by their son. A pleasant and modish place, fit for a bachelor, the home doubles up as a warm retreat for the entire family as and when they visit. In fact, the living-cum-dining area in the perfect example of understated luxe. So, how can you nail this unfussy glamorous look? "Colour blocking, essentially pairing a few solid hues to create a single bold look, is a great decor tactic that acts as a mood elevator," shares Bhavsar. Ajmera adds, "Accessorise with statement furniture pieces and decor in bold colours to add vibrancy and liveliness within the home, imbibing dynamism and vigour."
