Designed by Quirk Studio, Fancy Pants opens its new store in Bandra

Shades of blue add a unique touch to the interiors with curved panelling softening the overall feel of the store

FEMININE CHIC

Inaugurating its second branch in Mumbai with a vibrant ambience, the apparel store Fancy Pants celebrates women of all sizes and shapes

The recently opened Fancy Pants locale, a house for high-street fashion clothing in all sizes, marks the second establishment of the brand. Set in Bandra, an upscale suburb of Mumbai, the store's interiors draw inspiration from the brand's colour, hot pink, with a contrasting colour palette in emerald green and underlying notes of black and white in the form of stripes.

For Fancy Pants' vibrant aesthetic, the owners joined hands with Quirk Studio; an avant-garde interior design firm founded in 2013 by designer-duo Disha Bhavsar and Shivani Ajmera, who are also behind the brand's very first appointment-based branch in Mumbai.

The flamboyant interiors are juxtaposed with smooth terrazzo-style flooring which complements the cutting-edge design. The implementation of classical arches throughout the studio proved an artistic aura. "The great thing about the brand is that they celebrate and make clothes for all sizes," say Disha and Shivani. "Hence we took that as a starting point for the design, and decided to incorporate curves throughout to showcase the celebration of curves. Hence the arches, the rounded panelling, the fluting on the furniture and even the rounded racks." The zestful contrasting of colour tones, complemented by the accentuation of the curvy design notes which are enhanced with warmth and sensorial stimulation, makes for an inviting space where an upbeat, visually rich shopping experience awaits. ■ quirkstudio.in
